Two More Women Butchered. Yesterday morning the whole city of Lon don was again startled by the news that two more murders had been added to the list of mysterious crimes that have recently been committed in Whitechapel. At an early hour it was known that another woman had been murdered, and a report was also curbed ing, has been wither, and will be under the charge of a special to scher and entirely separate from the rent that there was still another victim This report proved true. The two victime, as in the former cases, were dissolute women of the poorer class. That the motive of the murderer was not robbery is shown by the fact that no attempt was made to despoil the bodies. The first murder occurred in a narrow court of Barners street, at an early hour yesterday morning, beneath the windows of a foreigners' socialistic club. A concert was in progress, and many members of the club were present, but no sound was heard from the victim. The same process had been followed as in the other cases. The woman had been siezed by the throat and her cries choked, and the murderer with sweeping cut had severed her throat from the body into the gutter. The mur-derer had evidently been disturbed before he had time to mutilate his victim. The second murder was committed three quarters of an hour later, in Mitra Square, five minutes' wask from the scene of the first crime. Policemen patrol the equare every ten minutes. The body of the unfortunate woman had been disemboweled, the throat cut and the nose severed. The heart and lungs had been thrown aside, and the enthe report of the doctors it is not known whether or not a portion of the viscera was taken away. The doctors, after a hasty examination of the body, said they thought it must have taken about five minutes to complete the work of the murderer, who then had plenty of time to escape the patrol. Mitre Square, the scene of the second mur-der, is a thoroughfare. Many people pass through the square early on Sunday morning on their way to prepare for market in the notorious Petticoat Lane. The publicity of the place adds to the daring of the crime
